Here is a list of top five activities to enjoy on your Dublin city break:

Catch a game of the world's fastest field sport in Croke Park Stadium

Hurling is Ireland's national sport. Every year counties from across Ireland battle it out to be crowned All Ireland Hurling Champions. The game is fast and furious and the All Ireland final is held on the first Sunday in September in front of a stadium packed with over 80,000 fanatical supporters and is the highlight of the sporting year.

Enjoy the Longitude Festival in Marley Park

Longitude Festival is one of the most anticipated music festivals in Ireland each summer. The three day festival between 17th and 19th July takes place in Marley Park, a large public park just outside Dublin city centre. This year Hozier and The Vaccines are set to headline the festival playing to a crowd of over 15,000 music lovers.

Stroll along the pier

The bustling fishing harbour pier offers breathtaking views across Dublin Bay and provides the perfect backdrop for a romantic stroll or fun filled family adventure. No trip to Dun Laoghaire is complete without an ice-cream cone from Teddy's Ice-cream Parlour – said to be the best ice-cream in Dublin!

Enjoy the Craic

Dublin is a city that is world famous for its beers and for its vibrant nightlife. So start out your night in the traditional Irish pubs that line the cobble stoned streets of Temple Bar, then move onto Camden Street or Harcourt Street to experience the best of the city's many night clubs.

Eclectic Shopping

Dublin offers one of Europe's most amazing shopping experiences. Visit one of Europe's most luxurious department stores Brown Thomas on Grafton Street or go to Georges Street Arcade where shoppers will find luxury food stalls and bohemian boutiques in a Victorian market. Check out the stunning Georgian architecture, and finally, treat yourself to a cocktail or a craft beer on South William Street, one of Dublin's trendiest streets.
