

RYANAIR CELEBRATES CARRYING 7M CUSTOMERS AT LEEDS BRADFORD® AIRPORT

Ryanair, Europe's favourite airline, today (6 July) celebrated its 7 millionth customer at Leeds Bradford® Airport since it commenced operations in 1996. This summer Ryanair will offer customers in Yorkshire a choice of 21 routes, delivering over 835,000 customers p.a. and supporting 835 "on-site" jobs* at Leeds Bradford® Airport.

Ryanair celebrated carrying 7 million customers at Leeds Bradford® Airport by releasing seats for sale across its European network, at prices from £19.99 for travel in August and September. These low fare seats are available for booking until midnight Thursday (9 July).

In Leeds, Ryanair's Deputy Director of Route Development, Kate Sherry said:

"Ryanair is delighted to celebrate its 7 millionth customer at Leeds Bradford® Airport. Over the last 19 years Ryanair has seen a huge demand for its routes in Leeds Bradford® Airport, as customers in Yorkshire snap up Ryanair's lowest fares to Europe's top destinations including Alicante, Dublin and Gdansk.

To celebrate 7 million customers at Leeds Bradford® Airport, we are releasing 100,000 seats for sale across our European network, at prices from £19.99 for travel in August and September which are available for booking until midnight Thursday (9 July). Since these amazing low prices will be snapped up quickly, customers should log onto ryanair.com and avoid missing out."

Tony Hallwood, Leeds Bradford® Airport's Aviation Development Director said;

"We are proud to celebrate the milestone of Ryanair's 7 millionth passenger at LBA™. From the introduction of low cost services to Dublin in the late 90s, Ryanair has successfully expanded its operations at Leeds Bradford® Airport, now flying to 21 destinations across Europe. We now look forward to continuing our excellent relationship and expanding our route network to deliver further growth in the number of international visitors to Yorkshire."
