PRESS RELEASE

Steve Heapy, CEO of Jet2.com and Jet2CityBreaks said: “New York really is something to shout about, which is why we are thrilled to be able to offer customers this experience direct from Leeds Bradford airport. This is our most ambitious programme yet with more choice of flights and hotels than ever before. I’m sure these breaks, be it shopping, October half term, Thanksgiving and the newly added New Year packages will be a real cause for celebration!”

Whether it’s watching the sun rise from the top of the Empire State Building, cultured trips to the Metropolitan Museum of Art or seeing the bright lights of Broadway, a trip to New York is a must. And on New Year’s Eve itself, partygoers can watch the Times Square Ball drop at midnight and enjoy spectacular live performances for a night to remember!

Tony Hallwood, Aviation Development Director Leeds Bradford[®] Airport commented;

“ This major expansion of New York city breaks by Jet2 is great news for those wishing to visit the ‘Big Apple’ in 2016. New York is one of the most vibrant cities in the world and flying close from home from Leeds Bradford makes this a perfect combination. A trip to downtown Manhattan for Xmas shopping or welcoming in the New Year in Times Square should be on everybody’s holiday wish list. So start spreading the news and book your memorable trip today.”
