RYANAIR LAUNCHES NEW LEEDS BRADFORD ROUTE TO WARSAW

Ryanair, Europe's No.1 airline, today (26 Apr) further expanded its Leeds Bradford winter 2016 schedule with a new route to Warsaw Modlin, in addition to a new route to Gran Canaria announced earlier, which will help deliver 1.1m customers p.a. and support 825* jobs at Leeds Bradford Airport.

Ryanair's Leeds Bradford winter 2016 schedule will deliver:

- 2 new routes: Gran Canaria (2 weekly) & Warsaw Modlin (2 weekly)
- New winter service to Faro (2 weekly)
- More flights to: Alicante (5 weekly), Krakow (4 weekly), Lanzarote (3 weekly) & Tenerife (3 weekly)
- 13 routes in total
- 47 weekly flights
- 1.1m customers p.a.
- 825* "on-site" jobs p.a.

Ryanair is the ideal choice for business and leisure customers, who can now choose from 13 Leeds Bradford routes in winter 2016 and look forward to further improvements, under Ryanair's "Always Getting Better" programme, which includes more new routes, new digital features, new cabin interiors and even more low fares.

Ryanair's Robin Kiely said: "We are pleased to launch this new route from Leeds Bradford to Warsaw, as part of our winter 2016 schedule, which will deliver 1.1 million customers p.a. and support 825 jobs at Leeds Bradford Airport, as we grow by 20%. This twice weekly service will be popular with both leisure and business customers and we look forward to continuing to grow both routes and jobs at Leeds Bradford Airport.

"To celebrate our new route to Warsaw, we are releasing seats for sale from just £19.99, which are available for booking until Wednesday (4 May) for travel in November and December. Since these amazing low prices will be snapped up quickly, customers should log onto www.ryanair.com and avoid missing out."
