LBA named as finalist in ‘Star UK Airport’ category

Tuesday 30th August: Leeds Bradford Airport has been named as a finalist in this year’s prestigious Travel Bulletin Star Awards.

The finalists for the national awards are nominated by travel agents from across the UK. Leeds Bradford Airport, which now welcomes around 3.5m passengers a year, has been named as a finalist in the ‘Star UK Airport’ category.

Representatives from Leeds Bradford Airport will travel to the awards ceremony in London on September 5th. Tony Hallwood, Aviation Development Director, said: “This is a prestigious travel industry award and we are delighted to have been shortlisted; it shows that travel agents and their customers see our dedication to offer the very best customer experience when travelling through our airport.

“Leeds Bradford Airport connects the Leeds city region with the world. We fly to 75 direct destinations across 25 countries, alongside offering four hub services which deliver a further 100 worldwide connections. Leeds Bradford Airport also takes great pride in our excellent on-time performance and exceptional levels of service to both our leisure and business customers.”
