PRESS RELEASE

Issued: Monday 3rd April 2017

Ryanair's biggest summer programme at LBA takes off

Five new Ryanair routes are being introduced to Leeds Bradford Airport this summer and will take to the skies in the coming weeks.

This includes a brand new route to Girona, which will fly twice weekly, giving holiday-makers direct access to Spain's Costa Brava region. The first flight to Girona will be on Monday 3rd April.

New summer routes to Bratislava (twice weekly), Gran Canaria (twice weekly), Vilnius (twice weekly) and Warsaw (twice weekly) are also jetting off from LBA in April; ready for what is expected to be the busiest summer ever at LBA.

Ryanair will operate its biggest ever programme from LBA this summer flying a total of 26 routes. In addition to the new routes, Ryanair has also increased the number of weekly frequencies they operate to Alicante (daily), Faro (daily), Ibiza (four weekly), Krakow (four weekly), Lanzarote (four weekly), Palma (eight weekly) and Warsaw (three weekly).

Tony Hallwood, Aviation Development Director at LBA, said:

"It's going to be a fantastic summer at LBA, with more Ryanair destination choices and the largest ever number of weekly flights with the airline."

"We look forward to welcoming Ryanair customers travelling to a wide range of sun, beach and city destinations over the summer period flying from Leeds Bradford Airport."

Ryanair's Robin Kiely said:

"Summer is finally here and we're pleased to officially launch our Leeds Bradford summer 2017 schedule and our new twice weekly route to Barcelona Girona."

"Ryanair customers in the Yorkshire region can choose from 25 routes from Leeds Bradford Airport this summer, and enjoy more flights to the likes of Alicante, Faro and Malaga as we continue to grow our UK traffic and routes."

“To celebrate the start of the summer season, and our new Leeds Bradford route, we are releasing seats on sale from just £9.99 for travel in May and June, which are available for booking until midnight Monday (3 April). Since these amazing low prices will be snapped up quickly, customers should log onto www.ryanair.com now and avoid missing out.”
