

LBA named as finalist in ‘Star UK Airport’ category of Travel Bulletin Awards

Leeds Bradford Airport has been named a finalist in the prestigious Travel Bulletin Star Awards, which recognise achievements in the travel and tourism industry.

The awards are voted for by UK travel agents and the winners will be announced at a ceremony to be held at London’s Langham Hotel on September 4th.

Emma Holliday, Aviation Sales Manager at LBA, said:

“I am so pleased that we have been named a finalist in this prestigious category, it’s fantastic to know that experts within the travel industry have cast votes for LBA. I’d like to thank everybody who voted for us.

“As a growing airport, LBA’s priorities centre around providing great customer service and securing even more routes. We wish all finalists the very best of luck at the awards ceremony next month.”

Leeds Bradford Airport has recently reported its busiest ever weeks and welcomes more than 3.6m passengers a year. The airport has undergone major updates over the winter, including the installation of bag drop facilities, an extra security lane and extra space in the departure lounge. In addition, new retail units have been added – including the addition of Boots and three Yorkshire sports teams.
